

Cara Cara

Cara Cara is a navel with deep pink/orange flesh colour from Venezuela. Overseas Cara Cara is reported to mature slightly ahead of Washington because of lower acidity. At Kerikeri the tree characteristics and yield have been similar to Washington navel.

This is an attractive addition to the range of navel varieties and one which seems sure to create great interest with consumers since it combines novel internal appearance with fine eating quality.